

Iran slams Turkey's foreign minister over phone call with Hamas leader

Iran's Foreign Minister Mohammad Javad Zarif on Sunday slammed Turkey's Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan for a phone call with Hamas leader Ismail Haniyeh on October 7.

Iran's Foreign Minister Mohammad Javad Zarif on Sunday slammed Turkey's Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan for a phone call with Hamas leader Ismail Haniyeh on October 7, saying it was a "serious mistake" and "a clear violation of international law".

Zarif said the call was "a clear violation of international law" and "a serious mistake" that "will not be forgotten". He said the call was "a clear violation of international law" and "a serious mistake" that "will not be forgotten".

Zarif said the call was "a clear violation of international law" and "a serious mistake" that "will not be forgotten". He said the call was "a clear violation of international law" and "a serious mistake" that "will not be forgotten".